Biography-

One day they woke up and they were The Stilts. They didn't know it know it, but they were. Everyone else knew it; although, they didn't know it either.

It was a work of fate. Something was different in the air that led them to this point. Why start a band in fall 2011 and at no other time? No one knows, but at the same time we know it.

Guitars, Bass, Drums: The Bare Four.

The only Four anyone really needs or should need to rock, that's what guitars, bass and drums are.

History has no place in the present.

We all know that, but we don't know it. It doesn't mean that the past is not important. It just means it's not important now. But when the past was present, it was SO important, because it built this. Jason was in the jam Floyd the Barber with Dave. Dave also played in Treachery, but that's the past. It means nothing, NOW. Jarod had Saving Society and Ryan had Avocets; but those aren't now. They were important then and they made now, but they aren't now.

The Stilts are now.

So go ahead, take the present as it is. Nothing can stop it and nothing wants to stop it. It was going to be anyway.

You knew that.
